A week before the event, the parade bears out the prediction of the firemen that it will be the biggest parade since the 75th reunion of the Blue and Gray here in 1938. The parade will form on East and West Broadway at 2:30 o'clock and move promptly at 3 o'clock through Carlisle street, Lincoln Square, Baltimore street, and Breckinridge street to the recreation field.

LAST PROPERTY IN M. WINTER'S ESTATE IS SOLD

The last property held by the Martin Winter estate has been sold, according to a deed filed Monday afternoon with the county register and recorder.

The sale of approximately five acres of land along East Middle street and lots on Barlow street completed the disposition of the property held by the estate that was set up with the death of Martin Winter on July 12, 1918, 32 years ago.

Sale of the properties proceeded slowly while three administrators handled it in the effort to carry out Winter's plans for the development of the town.

The area included much of what is now the northern part of Gettysburg, as well as land in the eastern and southern parts of the town.

Judge Donald P. McPherson was the first administrator and with his death in 1937 his son, State Senator Donald P. McPherson, Jr., became administrator. Upon his induction into the armed forces he was discharged as administrator and Mrs. Mary Ramer Eberhart took over the duties.

Final Account Soon

The deed filed Monday was from Mary Ramer Eberhart as administrator of the estate of Martin Winter to Leo F. and Anna M. McDermitt, Hanover street. The approximately five acres of land lie north and south of East Middle street near Fourth street. The next to last section of land, on Barlow street, was sold to George Naugle.

Next step in the procedure will be the filing of the final account with the county court, which Mrs. Eberhart said will be done in the near future. With the filing of the account request will be made for discharge of the administrator, thus completing the work that began more than three decades ago.

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD TO HOLD ITS CONVENTION AT FAIRGROUNDS

The Adams county school board, meeting Monday evening in the office of the county superintendent of schools at the court house, named committees for the annual directors' convention to be held August 3, made arrangements for a meeting of bus drivers July 13 at 5 p.m. in the court house, and spent much time discussing, with the supervising principals of the various jointures, the problems of arranging for compliance with the new school bus law.

Cpl. Jack Bartlett, of the local state police substation, led the discussion on the school bus stop law, and agreed to carry out similar duties at the meeting of the bus drivers with the schoolmen on July 13.

School buses must be equipped with authorized stop signals this year and each school bus driver must pass a physical examination by August 1, Bartlett told the group.

Enforcing Law

Bartlett revealed that local state police are enforcing the new law which states that motorists must stop when a school bus halts along the highway. Because bus stop signs have not been set up by school authorities to establish zones, the state police corporal said, the arrests have been generally on charges of driving too fast for conditions.

Establishment of a safety patrol on buses, to aid children in crossing the roads to their homes from the buses, was discussed by the supervising principals and board members. The group agreed that where such a set-up could not be established the bus driver should get out of the bus and aid the youngsters across the highway.

Corporal Bartlett and others noted that "it may take a little longer to travel the entire bus route if the driver must get out and aid youngsters across the highway, but the main consideration is not speed of delivery, but safety of the child."

Stop In Zones

If school bus stop zones are erected by the county's school systems, bus drivers will halt their buses only in those zones, Bartlett said, adding that the law provides a $20 fine for bus drivers stopping elsewhere to take on or discharge passengers.

Every school bus driver must have a physical examination prior to August 1, because he must have the certificate on hand for the first day of school bus inspection, August 1, the board learned. The possibility of having a standard examination for all bus drivers at the Warner hospital here was discussed but the idea was dropped when further reading of the law showed that the examination must be given by the various school district physicians.

The first, a wall plaque, was a VFW national award for outstanding community service. Adjutant Lumen Norris accepted the award at ceremonies Saturday. This was the second time the Emmitsburg post has earned this award making it the only post in Maryland so honored.

The citation is based on the scope of active community service rendered by VFW posts and selection is made by a special service committee which makes recommendations to the VFW national headquarters.

The Emmitsburg post was cited for purchasing special rescue equipment for the community ambulance it had previously donated to the town; buying a merry-go-round and a sliding board for the public and parochial schools; sponsoring Americanism essay contests in the schools; co-sponsoring a Christmas party for children; and donating $1,000 to aid in the rebuilding of the Reformed church which was destroyed by fire.

Membership Award

The second award, a streamer for the post's colors and a commendation to the post members for having exceeded the previous years membership, was presented to Commander Wales E. Rightmire.

MRS. S. E. KAPP INJURED WHEN TRAIN HITS CAR

Mrs. Bessie Kapp, 57, wife of Sewell E. Kapp, Reading railroad employe and insurance agent, of East York street, Biglerville, was injured at 10:25 o'clock Monday night when an automobile she was driving was struck by a backing freight train on the Carlisle street crossing.

She was taken to the Warner hospital in the ambulance, where her injuries were reported as a mild cerebral concussion, abrasions of the scalp and lower extremities and a contusion of the right shoulder. Her condition was reported as satisfactory today.

Train Was Backing

Mrs. Kapp was traveling south on Carlisle street. The freight, a Western Maryland train designated as Extra No. 22, had stopped west of the crossing to leave several cars for interchange with the Reading railroad, and the Diesel locomotive and several cars were backing toward the Western Maryland yards.

The train was enroute from York to Hagerstown, in charge of Conductor R. C. Barnhart and Engineer C. A. Topper, both of Hagerstown. Irving L. Shuffler, Hanover, part-time dispatcher at the Western Maryland station here, said he was standing on the crossing with an electric lantern. A large tractor trailer truck stopped on the south side. He said he saw Mrs. Kapp's car approaching from the other direction and attempted to stop her. When she failed to slow down and stop for his signal, he was forced to jump out of her way, he said.

Strikes Car Door

The coupler on the freight car at the end of the backing locomotive and string of cars struck the automobile in the center of the right hand front door, pushing the car over onto the sidewalk on the east side of the crossing. Borough police said Mrs. Kapp was knocked to the floor beneath the steering wheel, and had to be lifted out over the back seat.

After obtaining the names of the train crew, police allowed the train to proceed. State police of the Gettysburg substation directed traffic until the train and the damaged automobile had been removed.

SMALL NUMBERS OF ARMY WORMS INVADE COUNTY

Army worms, which have devastated numerous farms in Bedford, Blair, Huntingdon and Westmoreland counties, have appeared in the eastern part of Adams county, near Hanover, County Agent M. T. Hartman said today.

The infestation does not appear now to be very large, he added, noting that where other counties have been invaded by millions of the hairless caterpillars, only a small number have been found here.

Called army worms because they travel apparently in disciplined battalions and always in a straight line to their next objective, the 1½ to two-inch caterpillars eventually become brownish gray moths with a two-inch wingspread. The larvae resemble cutworms, Hartman said. When traveling in sufficient numbers, the worms will completely destroy the farm crops of a single farm in the course of a day.

Two Sprays Effective

Traveling across roads they present a traffic menace. Both DDT and chlordane have proven effective in sprays against the worms, Hartman said, with most farmers using one pound of actual DDT or one pound of actual chlordane per acre.

Many farmers in Bedford and other counties have actually wiped out their potential hay and barley crops in the battle against the worms. Neither DDT nor chlordane can be used on hay or on mature barley and barley is being cut now throughout the county. Many farmers, he said have sprayed both barley and hay, when the worms appear, in order to wipe out the worm and prevent its reappearance next year, despite the fact that by spraying they also lost their entire crop. The mild winter and wet spring are blamed for the large number of army worms appearing this year.

Hartman advised farmers that the situation in the county, as of the present moment, is not serious. It is believed that the worms seen near Hanover have migrated from York county, some parts of which are heavily infested.

Stands Firm Against Red 'Aggression'

Washington, June 27 (AP)—President Truman today ordered United States planes and warships to the aid of South Korean forces. He laid down a policy of standing firm against Communist aggression in the far Pacific.

As a part of the broader policy, Mr. Truman directed that the U. S. Seventh Fleet be prepared to intervene to prevent any Communist attack on Formosa, the island refuge of the Chinese Nationalist government.

At the same time, he asked that Chiang Kai-shek, head of the Chinese Nationalists, cease attacks on the mainland as a contribution toward the pacification of the whole area.

He also announced he is stepping up aid to the Philippines and Indonesia.

Has Important Meeting

Mr. Truman announced his actions in a statement which declared: "The attack upon Korea makes it plain beyond all doubt that communism has passed beyond the use of subversion to conquer independent nations and will now use armed invasion and war."

It was learned that Mr. Truman's historic decisions were reached at a high policy meeting at the White House last night.

Before announcing them in a statement today, he called both Democratic and Republican Congressional leaders to the White House to review them and explain the background.

Condemn Red Invasion

The United States actions were taken under the United Nations resolution which condemned the Communist invasion of Korea and asked all members of the U.N. to lend their support to carrying out the U.N. declaration for a halt to the fighting.

The next big question is what will be Russia's reaction.

The hope of American officials is that the Soviet will refrain from any direct aid to the North Korean forces and permit the fighting there to be ended.

Report U. S. Bombings

Tokyo, June 27 (AP)—A report that apparently was well founded said American planes tonight would begin bombing all towns captured by North Korean troops and would continue bombing until the north-erners have retreated back across (Please Turn to Page 2) the 38th parallel.

The report that American-manned bombers would take such action was confirmed by usually informed sources.

(The sources of the original report and of the confirmation were not identified.)

Word of the recapture came from Korean sources and was partially confirmed by two Korean newspapers in a direct telephone conversation with Tokyo.

Recapture of Uijongbu, 12 miles north of Seoul, would sever main communication lines of the Communist tank spearhead, once reported near Seoul, and might, in itself, require a hasty withdrawal of the Red Force before it is cut off.

(Correspondent O. H. P. King said yesterday the Korean counterattack at Uijongbu failed principally because of the second division, under heavy artillery fire, failed to move on schedule and threw off planned cooperation with the seventh division.

(He said unofficial advice was that Brigadier Gen. Hyung Keun consequently was relieved of command of the second division and replaced by Brig. Gen. Yoo Shai Jeung, who formerly commanded the sixth division on Cheju Island.)

The two Korean newspapers who talked to Tokyo by telephone said Seoul was "quiet" and the main battle line was more than 20 miles to the north.

Two tight games were played in the softball league Monday evening with the VFW defeating the Stanton Legion 7-5 and the Glenn L. Bream garage barely nosing out the Eagles 8-7.

The Vets were forced to come from behind to win the opener. The Legionnaires led 5-4 at the middle of the fifth frame but the Vets pushed over a pair of runs in the fifth and added one in the sixth to clinch the decision. Buckley and Staub each secured a pair of hits for the victors with Timbers hitting a home run and J. Carter a double and two singles for the Legion.

Last year's champs had a 6-0 lead over the Eagles before the Lodge-men began to click and just missed pulling the game from the fire in the final frame. Ken Fair was lifted in favor of his brother, George, after yielding a run and still had the bases loaded with none out. G. Fair walked another run in but succeeded in preventing further score. Rohrbaugh and Kitzmiller poled homers for the winners while Greiner and Shoop each hit safely twice for the losers.

Hagerstown Back In First Place

(By The Associated Press)
The Hagerstown Braves are back in first place in the Interstate league today with the Wilmington Blue Rocks hot on their trail.

The Braves went a half game ahead of the Rocks yesterday by virtue of a 9-4 10-inning decision. A five-run outburst in the last frame turned the trick for Hagerstown.

The Allentown Cardinals put over three runs in the final inning to down the Harrisburg Senators 5-4 in the first game of a twin bill. The Senators bounced back in the nightcap to take a 4-1 decision.

George (Red) McCafferty chalked up his second triumph without a loss as the Trenton Giants nosed out the York White Roses 4-3.

The Lancaster Red Roses blasted the Sunbury Athletics 14-11 in a game featured by 33 hits, nine of the extra base variety.

Tonight's schedule: Hagerstown at Wilmington; Harrisburg at Allentown; York at Trenton; Sunbury at Lancaster.

Americans Win Opening Rounds

Wimbledon, England, June 27 (AP)

—America's women players have a high mark to shoot at in their opening round matches of the Wimbledon tennis championships today.

The male contingent of eight Americans scored 100 per cent yesterday, winning all their matches before a fashionable crowd of 20,000 that jammed around Wimbledon's 16 emerald green courts under sunny skies.

The girls won't be quite able to match that achievement, because of the luck of the draw. Nancy Chaffee of Los Angeles meets Marta Barnett of Coral Gables, Fla.

Titleholder Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., seeded No. 1, plays Mrs. A. C. Brighton of Britain.

All second round men's singles matches also will be played in a 72-match schedule that probably will last till twilight.

KINER OUTHITS WILLIAMS IN SLUGGING SHOW

By JIM HOLTON

Pittsburgh, June 27 (AP)—Ted Williams—he of the unpredictable humor and hair-trigger temper—never batted an eyelash when the kid who calls him his hero outslugged him 2-1 in a home run hitting contest.

The reigning monarchs of major league mayhem—Williams and Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh—dueled in a novel swatting contest before an exhibition game between the Boston Red Sox and the Pirates last night.

Each slugger was allowed 14 fair hits.

Williams drilled four offerings from Red Sox hurler Paul Schriver into the right field stands.

Eight Out Of Park

Kiner slammed eight well engineered drives out of the park—six of them far beyond the foreshortened Greenberg gardens in left field. "Three star" Hennessey served them up to Ralph.

Kiner admittedly was gunning for the American League's top 1950 slugger. While the Pirate clouter makes no secret of his admiration for Williams as "baseball's best slugger—better than me," he took no chances at slicing at a bad delivery when his turn came at bat.

As Williams took his turn at the plate, Kiner studiously observed every twinge of the lanky outfielder's muscles from the Pirate dugout. When the enigmatic Ted rapped a long one, Kiner's mouth dropped open in admiration. But he didn't follow the soaring ball. He was watching Williams.

Despite Kiner's mathematically superior performance, Williams stole the show.

Poses With Wagner

He was the all-American boy, the kid next door, the bashful star of the high school team.

Ted joshed amiably with baseball writers outside the batting cage before the game.

He hurried deliberately on the field for his turn in the batting duel with a sort of eager skipping gait and a shy grin.

He trotted from the Red Sox to the Pirates dugout in immediate response to a suggestion from the field announcer that he pose for pictures with Pittsburgh's immortal Honus Wagner.

Kiner was all grins after the contest as he checked his big bat to trot out to left field for the game. As he wiped the perspiration from his face, he drawled:

"He's still the best hitter in baseball."

KELL'S REPEAT PERFORMANCES HELP DETROIT

By JOE REICHLER

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

"The test of a true batting champion is whether he can repeat."

It was wise old Connie Mack who first made that sage remark many years ago. It still is true today.

Since 1900 there have been 44 different major league batting champions. Only eight won the title two or more consecutive seasons although nine others returned to the top after a lapse of a year or two more.

Which brings us to George Kell, who won the American league batting championship by two ten-thousandths of a point over Ted Williams last fall.

For some unknown reason Kell's victory over Williams was greeted with applause usually reserved for "cheese champions." Perhaps it was because he did not move into the top spot until the very last day.

Most Valuable Player

But did it discourage the American league's standout third sacker? Well, the top figure in the majors today is 372, compiled by George Kell of the Tigers. He has the most hits, the most doubles.

It is by no means certain that Kell will win the championship again this year. There is no doubt, however, that thus far he's been the most valuable player in his league. He, more than any other player, has been most responsible for the Tigers' lofty perch.

Kell had a hand in Detroit's up-hill 6-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox in yesterday's only big league encounter. George got two singles and a walk in four times at bat. He was the only Tiger to score against Billy Pierce until Detroit blasted over the four-run winning rally in the eighth.

The victory increased the Tigers' first-place lead over the idle New York Yankees to 3½ games.

Hal White, making his first start of the year, got his first victory although Dizzy Trout finished in the ninth.

Three exhibition games were played last night. The New York Yankees downed their interborough rivals, the Giants, 9-4, at the Polo Grounds, the Phillies scored six runs in the last three innings to down Connie Mack's Athletics, 8-5, and Pete Castiglione cracked a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to give Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory over Boston's Red Sox.

Defender Meets Surprise Player

Ardmore, Pa., June 27 (AP)—Ruth Marshall, defending champion from Norristown, Pa., takes on a "surprise" opponent today in the quarter final round of the Middle States Girls' Grass Court championships.

Barbara Garforth, Germantown, earned a meeting with Miss Marshall yesterday by scoring an upset 6-2, 6-4 victory over seventh-seeded Carol Mortimer, Washington Junior champion.

Miss Marshall had little trouble in reaching the round of 12, defeating Mary Whitaker, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-0, and Nancy Corse, Washington, 6-0, 6-4.

Other quarter final pairings fixed: Gwynth Johnson, Merion Cricket, meeting Barbara Joan Butt, Doylestown, Pa.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Accident: On Thursday afternoon, William J. Hummer, while standing on the Western Maryland railroad tracks, near the freight depot, was struck by engine No. 8, causing his right foot to be so severely crushed as to make amputation necessary. Mr. Hummer is the driver of a freight delivery wagon. He was standing on the railroad talking to his son-in-law who was handling the brakes on a freight car which had been shifted into the siding. The engine backed down the track on which he was standing and was moving so slowly that he did not notice it. It is said that the engineer called to Hummer. The tender of the engine struck him on the hip knocking him off the track. The wheels of the tender ran over his right foot. The large bones of the foot was crushed, the toes broken and the flesh badly lacerated.

The injured man was taken to his home where his right leg was amputated between the knee and ankle. Dr. J. B. Scott, the family physician, performed the operation, assisted by Dr. Walter H. O'Neal and Dr. J. R. Dickson. Mr. Hummer stood the operation very well and is getting along finely.

Convention Nominates a Winning Ticket: For President — William McKinley, of Ohio.

For Vice-President — Theodore Roosevelt, of Oyster Bay, New York. This was the great and inspiring presidential ticket which the Republican National convention nominated last Thursday, at Philadelphia. The President, of course, received a re-nomination. Everyone of the 926 votes in the convention was cast for him. Gov. Roosevelt, for vice-president, received 925 votes; he, sitting with his delegation at the time, naturally did not vote for himself.

Many happy recollections will be entertained by those who looked over the vast audience in the convention hall. Never were there so many ladies present at a Republican National convention. Their bright faces, depicting the keenest interest in the proceedings, the many hues of their gowns, the rainbow colors of the hats worn by them, and their gentle though profound ignorance of the essential elements of practical politics as demonstrated in the working of a national convention were not, by any means, the least of the attractions. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt sat in a front seat in the gallery where she could see every fleeting glance of her husband's face. Her face lighted up at the tremendous cheers for him.

Baseball Notes: In the twenty-one innings "Eddie" Plank has pitched thus far for McSherrystown, his opponents have only succeeded in scoring seven hits against him. His record is again attracting attention and it is said that he is even in better form than last year.

Local Miscellany: While returning home at 10 o'clock, Saturday evening, Samuel M. Bushman, cashier of the First National bank, was knocked down by a large colored man, on Baltimore pike, where the electric railway makes the turn. Mr. Bushman was struck twice on the head, but returning to consciousness, called for aid, when the man ran away.

Dr. H. L. Diehl has started the erection of a brick stable on the rear of his lot on Baltimore street. Isaiah Reindollar is the contractor.

Personal Mention: Among those who attended the Republican National convention, at Philadelphia, last week, from this place were Ex-Sheriff Wm. B. McIlhenny, John C. Lower, J. L. Hill, Jr., Esq., Postmaster Geo. P. Young and W. B. Schroder.

VISIT A BOOKSHOP

Now that vacation time has arrived, new scenes, new towns, new people, and new experiences, will be in order. In many a convenient spot will be located a bookshop. Visit it, whether you have it in mind to buy a book or not. Bookshops are friendly places with a silent atmosphere that is always stimulating.

Books are products of people just like you. Their thoughts and observations are oftentimes only written into their books. We never know when we are to meet a new friend in the flesh, likewise, we never know when we may meet a new friend in a book. The bookshop is the place. So, form the habit of visiting these intriguing places.

Christopher Morley once wrote: "We visit bookshops not so often to buy any one special book, but rather to rediscover, in the happier and more expressive words of others, our own encumbered soul." I can think of no better reason than this for visiting a bookshop and becoming friendly there.

Many a little treasure have I retrieved from its long sleep in some hidden corner of a bookshop. An old friend of mine once wrote an article in a magazine about his 10-cent book shelf—none costing more than 10 cents, and many of them worth more than 10 cents. There is no place, in which a lover of books can get himself more lost to the outside world, than in a bookshop, especially a second-hand shop.

An English writer, whose books I have long admired, wrote one of his first ones under the title of "With Silent Friends," which were his books. It's these silent friends who relax us and commune with us, always at our call. At any hour of the day or night they await us.

So, while on your vacation, visit a bookshop if there is one near. Make a new silent friend — one to whom you can tie for life. People don't hesitate to go to a doctor if they feel ill, or have home physical trouble. Why not go to a bookshop when you feel the need of mental and spiritual uplift? Perhaps you may discover yourself there!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Patient People."

21 ARE KNOWN DEAD IN SEVERE FLASH FLOODS

West Union, W. Va., June 27 (AP)—At least 21 persons were dead and 33 missing Monday in the wake of flash floods that struck a six-county area of north-central West Virginia early Sunday morning. The surging torrents rolled out of the darkness without warning.

Authorities fear the toll may go much higher. At least 12 of the 15 members of a family gathered for a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey at Smithburg, five miles west of here, are missing.

Only one member of the Bailey family is known to be alive. The body of Mrs. Bailey, about 60, has been recovered and another body, believed to be that of a five-months-old grandson, also has been found.

Home Carried 2 Miles

The Bailey home was directly in the path of the flood. Sheriff Paul B. Davis said the house was carried nearly two miles downstream.

The only known survivor of the family is Charles Bailey, a son, who is in a West Union hospital with a fractured leg, cuts and bruises.

Six members of the B. J. Cooper family at Smithburg also were listed as dead in the swirling waters, and three members of another family there were killed when their home was pounded into bits against a railway trestle.

Berea, a little agricultural community located on a horse shoe curve of the south fork of the Hughes river south of here, also was hard hit. Six persons were known dead there, including a grandmother and two of her grandchildren.

Youths Give Warning

Postmaster Ray Bonnell said the toll at Berea might have been higher except for the Paul Revere actions of two of the town's young men, Harland Hodge and Charles Bridge, who dashed through the community knocking on doors to warn residents.

Property damage is expected to run high. In West Union, 200 homes were destroyed. City officials at West Union, 25 miles to the southeast on the West Fork river, estimated the damage there at $2,000,000.

All of West Union sections on the hillsides was under water at one time.

Fear For Safety Of Missionaries

Seoul, June 27 (AP)—Fears grew today for the safety of the husband of a New Cumberland, Pa., woman and four other American Methodist missionaries in Kaesong, Communist-captured city of 11,000 population 40 miles northwest of Seoul.

One of the group, Dr. Anders K. Jensen of Seoul, had gone to Kaesong on Saturday night for a week-end visit. His wife lives at 301 Market street, New Cumberland.

No word has been received since the invaders surrounded the city Sunday and eliminated South Korean resistance.

The five are under the jurisdiction of the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions, 150 Fifth avenue, New York.

STRIKE HALTS FOUR RAILROADS; THOUSANDS IDLE

Chicago, June 27 (AP)—The strike of 4,000 AFL switchmen had brought four major western railroads to a standstill today and had thrown thousands of other workers out of jobs.

Lines tied up by the walkout Sunday morning of the Switchmen's Union of North America are the 8,000-mile Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; the 2,413-mile Denver and Rio Grande Western; the 1,500-mile Chicago and Great Western; and the 1,125-mile Western Pacific.

The fifth struck line, the 8,000-mile Great Northern, said it has maintained near normal passenger service but that its freight movements have been crippled.

The men left their jobs in support of a demand for a 40-hour week at the present 48-hours pay, equal to a wage boost of 31 cents an hour. In taking the strike action, they rejected a recommendation by a presidential fact-finding board that they be granted a 40-hour week and a pay increase of 18 cents an hour.

The union now has a contract with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad at the terms requested of the other lines. That agreement raised the pay of switchmen or yard conductors from $13.06 a day to $15.67; helpers or yard brakemen from $12.21 to $14.65 and switch tenders from $10.71 to $12.86.

The strike deadline at 6 a.m. local time Sunday found the four railroads ready to halt operations. They had announced earlier that if final negotiations failed of a settlement, they would not even try to run any trains during the strike.

Thousands Of Scouts Pour Into Valley Forge For Largest Youth Gathering In Western Hemisphere

Valley Forge, Pa., June 27 (AP)—There is far more going on than meets the eye at the bustling site of the second National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America.

The behind-the-scenes activity has a two-fold objective. The Jamboree will get under way officially on Friday when President Truman arrives to make the opening address.

Secret Service men, state police and Scout leaders are leaving no stone unturned to make certain the President's visit is without incident.

In addition, a Scout official said today, extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent the Jamboree—largest youth gathering ever held in the western hemisphere—from being discredited or "sabotaged" by Communists or their sympathizers.

Protest Food Supplies
The Scout leader, who asked that his name be withheld, pointed out Jamboree authorities realize the Communist press would be quick to capitalize on any act or rumor which might be used to the detriment of the encampment.

All food suppliers, the spokesman said, have been alerted to protect bulk shipments from being handled by any but authorized persons.

Police personnel assigned to the Jamboree have been instructed to be on the lookout for any possible sabotage—and also to report immediately any "reckless rumors."

Secret Service agents toured historic Valley Forge park yesterday. Gerald A. Behn, assistant supervising agent of the White House detail, expressed satisfaction at the precautionary steps already taken to protect the President.

least 35,000 other employees, most of them effective today.

The exact route to be followed by the President's party from the railroad station to the encampment will remain a secret.

Many Special Trains

The first two of more than 100 special trains arrived yesterday with 873 Scouts from the Midwest. More than 16,000 other campers are expected today and by Thursday night, 47,000 Scouts will be on hand from all the 48 states, U. S. territories, and 20 other countries.

The vast tent city in which the boys will live for seven days, ending July 6, is located on the rolling hills where George Washington's ragged Continental army spent the winter of 1777.

The site—loaned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—was chosen because of the historic background it will lend the encampment.

In addition to President Truman, other notables expected to visit the week-long Jamboree include General Dwight D. Eisenhower, wartime allied commander in Europe and now president of Columbia university. He will come to Valley Forge July 4—possibly by means of a helicopter to avoid the traffic on the one roadway leading in to the camp.

LOOK TO UN TO FIND SOLUTION TO KOREAN WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Upon the shoulders of the United Nations rests the responsibility of finding a safe solution for the Korean upheaval—the most dangerous threat to global peace which the organization has thus far encountered.

This conflict is of course just a fresh phase of the struggle between communism and the democracies. However, in its essence it is another clash between the leaders of the two ideologies—Russia which is backing Northern Korea, and America, which has sponsored the Southern Koreans in establishing their republic.

Thus the position is far too dangerous to be dealt with in any other way than by concerted action in the U.N. Direct armed intervention by either Washington or Moscow in Korea would be almost certain to produce the war which nobody wants. It may be splitting hairs rather fine, but the provision of military supplies to the armed Koreans—either North or South—isn't placed in the category of armed intervention technically.

To Provide Aid

Presumably this was the background of yesterday's action by the Republican members of the U. S. Senate, meeting in caucus in Washington. They voted that the Korean incident shouldn't be allowed to involve the United States in war, although this country should provide military supplies and other aid for South Korea.

American supplies are being rushed to Southern Korea from Japan, but President Rhee yesterday described this aid as "too little and too late" after the Russian-backed Communist invaders from Northern Korea threw a tank column to the outskirts of Seoul, the Southern capital. Rhee said he didn't mean it looked like failure for the Southern cause at that juncture, but the country was "very hard up because aid was slow in coming."

In any event, the only satisfactory solution would be to halt the fighting altogether, and that would have to be done through concerted action in the United Nations. Some suggest it might be handled by mediation. President Truman has pledged the full support of the country to U.N. efforts to end the "unprovoked aggression." He added:

Threat To Peace

"Those responsible for this act of aggression must realize how seriously the government of the United States views such threats to the peace of the world."

The United States is the key to the position, so far as concerns the U.N. While any sanctions agreed upon by the peace organization presumably would be carried out by an international group, America might have to bear the brunt of the assignment. For that reason her recommendations will be bound to have much weight in the U.N. considerations. The current position reminds one of another Far Eastern crisis which the League of Nations encountered back in 1922. Japan's aggression against China in Manchuria was brought before the League of Nations and there were heated arguments over the possible use of sanctions against Nippon.

League Too Timid

But the League was too timid to meet the crisis squarely. Japan's only punishment was condemnation and she resigned from the peace organization.

This failure of the League to measure up to the situation was credited by many observers with having much to do with its loss of face and ultimate demise. That is a point which may be worth remembering now as a somewhat similar situation comes up for action in the U.N.

DUFF ATTACKS DILWORTH; TO WELCOME PROBE

Harrisburg, June 27 (AP) — Gov. James H. Duff questions the legality of a proposed Congressional investigation of Republican campaign expenses in Pennsylvania.

"The Federal Corrupt Practices Act makes no regulation of any kind for expenditures in a primary," Duff said in a week-end statement.

At the same time, Duff accused the Democrats of resorting to "sneak" tactics.

"If the Democrats want it rough, that's all we want to know," he said. "We did not go through the kind of primary we did for the purpose of dropping dead before a gang of loud-yelling Democrats."

Will Welcome Probe

Duff reiterated his willingness to have such a probe as planned by Senator Gillette (D-Ia.), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on privileges and elections. That group has the duty of policing this year's election of 36 senators.

Gillette said last week that Senate investigators will come into Pennsylvania to check what he termed "alleged huge expenditures" in the May 16 primary.

"As I have already stated publicly," Duff said, "if the Democrats want an investigation, I welcome it; and the sooner the better so as to leave nobody in confusion."

The GOP's two warring factions in Pennsylvania spent more than $1,500,000 in the recent primary, according to reports filed with the state Elections Bureau.

The wing backing Duff for U. S. senator and former Judge John S. Fine for governor reported more than $830,000 in expenses.

Duff singled out Richardson Dilworth, Democratic nominee for governor for special criticism in his statement.

Wants Public Informed

"The pronouncements of the Democratic candidate for governor are the most irresponsible statements that have ever been issued in a campaign in Pennsylvania," Duff asserted. "Daily he gives off a

RIDES "LIKE A MILLION"
DELIVERS FOR ONLY $1,979.00

POWER? Sure! Here's a whole bonnetful of Fireball straight-eight power.

Room? Plenty—in big, sofa-wide seats and generous room for elbows and shoulders.

Style? Well take a look—see anything on the road today that is so smart, sleek, so quickly spotted?

But that's just a start in this beauty. Here you're going to meet the "ride of a lifetime"—smooth, level-going comfort in the quite matchless Buick manner. Just see why this is so:

Most cars have coil springs in front. Buick has them all around.

WHATEVER YOUR PRICE RANGE

Most cars now ride on low-pressure tires. Buick adds to them Safety-Ride rims to cut heel-over and sway.

Most cars drive through the rear springs, which means they have to be stiff. Buick drives through a firm torque-tube that takes up driving thrust and roughness.

And no other car—no, not a single one—has all these comfort extras plus husky frames plus Hi-Poised engine mountings plus middle-of-the-car seating plus the extra silkiness of Dyna-flow Drive.* *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

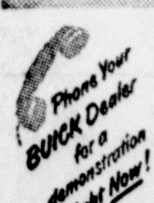

Optional equipment, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

Worth something? You bet it is! But it's riding luxury that doesn't show up in the price tags. Figures start at levels lower than on many sixes—yet every Buick has this matchless array of ride features.

Better come learn about them—by firsthand trial. Can you see your Buick dealer today?

ACHESON SETS NO RECORDS IN SPEECH - MAKING

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, June 27 (AP)—Dean Acheson has been Secretary of State just about a year and a half, or 18 months, and in that time he has made 20 major speeches. That's an average of better than one a month, and he has more coming up. For a busy and important man like Acheson, it's a lot of speechmaking.

But he isn't setting any oratory record for Secretaries of State. That still belongs to the "Boy Orator of the Platte," William Jennings Bryan, for a comparable period time among modern Secretaries.

Bryan made 55 major talks, a shade better than two a month, in the 27 months—or two and a quarter years—when he was Secretary of State from March, 1913 to June, 1915.

Prepared Speeches
Those close to Acheson say he's a lot more effective speaker when he talks off-the-cuff without notes or prepared text. But, they feel, there's a little danger in that for a Secretary of State.

There's always the chance he may use a word or phrase which will wind up having an effect he never intended, a word or phrase he might not have used if he had first gone over his talk in writing.

So, so far, most of his speeches have been carefully prepared, and may be re-written as much as ten times or more. It all starts this way:

A group or organization which wants Acheson for a speaker writes to the State Department's Office of Public Affairs, under the direction of Francis Russell.

Since Russell's office gets an average of 65 such requests a month but Acheson averages only one speech a month, he is filling only a fraction of the requests.

It's the job of Russell's office to recommend to Acheson the requests it thinks he should accept. But he makes the final decision. Once he does, the work begins.

There were a lot of points and problems Acheson wants to get across to the public. He selects one of them. The first draft of the speech is drawn up by people in Russell's office. They're picked for the job because they're supposed to have shown ability in speechwriting. Specialists in the field to be covered by a talk are called in for help and consultation. For example: If Acheson is going to talk on Russia, Korea, and the Atlantic Pact, State Department specialists in those fields lend a hand.

After he gets the first draft, Acheson goes over it. Often he re-writes it to suit himself at home at night. Then the Acheson version goes back to the specialists for a final check.

With this done and the speech in final form, the whole thing is submitted to President Truman. And Acheson's aides say Mr. Truman reads every word of Acheson's talks before the latter makes them.

Crashes Kill Two In Reading Area

A two-car collision Sunday near the Reading airport claimed the life of Robert Warner of West Leesport.

Red Newspaper Is Suspended By Doug

Tokyo, June 27 (AP)—General MacArthur Monday ordered the Japanese government to suspend publication of the Communist party newspaper Akahata for 30 days.

It was MacArthur's third body blow to Japan's Reds in as many weeks. On June 6 he ordered 20 of the party's Central Executive committee purged from Japanese political life. The next day he banned 17 top editorial personnel from working on Akahata.

In a letter to Premier Shigeru Yoshida Monday MacArthur said he hoped elimination of the old leadership would turn Akahata toward "a course of relative moderation."

MILK STRIKE IS DEADLOCKED

Pittsburgh, June 27 (AP)—Union and management sat tight Monday in the western Pennsylvania milk strike which has shut off normal milk deliveries in a widespread western Pennsylvania area.

There are no prospects for further negotiating sessions in the immediate future.

A meeting Saturday night broke up without sign of a settlement. Both sides said they'd remain "on call" if the other wanted another session.

Jack Davis, chairman of the negotiating committee for the 67 struck dairies, declared:

"We've gone as far as we can. There's no use meeting unless the union has something new to offer."

Harry A. Tevis, president of Local 205, AFL Milk and Ice Cream Salesmen and Dairy Employees, said:

"The industry knows what we want. The membership of our union has voted down the dealers' proposals. We're back where we started from. We want the industry to meet our original demands."

These demands were made for a new contract to replace the one which expired last May 1.

Pa. In the same crash Harold Rickert of Reading, his wife, Geraldine, and their 10-year-old son, Dennis, were all hospitalized.

A truck-car crash near Bethel, 24 miles northwest of Reading Saturday killed Bernard Pedneau, 34, of Staten Island, N. Y., a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Earl J. Tichacek of Brook, Ind., driver of the truck, is in Good Samaritan hospital at Lebanon with serious injuries.

Cops Face Barrage Of Flying Saucers

Philadelphia, June 27 (AP)—Patrolmen Philip Burley and Albert McTague have seen some genuine flying saucers—in fact they were almost hit by a couple.

Burley and McTague received a riot call from a diner in suburban Upper Darby Sunday. As the two policemen arrived on the scene, they were greeted by a barrage of flying china—ware—including an assortment of saucers.

BOROUGH CAN'T FORCE SCHOOLS TO COLLECT TAX

Philadelphia, June 27 (AP)—From now on, no Pennsylvania municipality may require a school district to collect a tax for it.

This was the ruling handed down yesterday by the State Supreme Court. The decision is likely to have a far-reaching effect on tax matters in the state.

The decision came on a test of the 1947 Brunner act, the so-called "tax anything act."

Justice Horace Stern, in writing the high court opinion, said that "while the act of 1947 authorizes municipal bodies to levy and collect certain taxes, it does not in terms, or even by any reasonable inference, grant them the power to compel any agency of the Commonwealth to collect such taxes for their benefit."

Rules On Appeal

The case came before the court on an appeal by the school district of Wilkesburg, Allegheny county, from a decision by Allegheny county common pleas court which held that the borough was within its rights in requiring the school district to collect a tax it had imposed under the Brunner act.

The school district is a Commonwealth subdivision. The tax was a one-cent levy on each 10 cents on sports events admissions.

Mothers And Son Killed By Racer

Berlin, N. J., June 27 (AP)—A 33-year-old mother and one of her children were killed at Alto Speedway by a speeding stock car racer that crashed through a guard rail Sunday. Another child was injured seriously.

Several thousand racing fans saw the car, driven by Don MacFarland of Hershaw, Pa., hurtle through the fence on the tracks southeast corner. He was not hurt.

Mrs. Mary Suggs, of Camden, and her son, William, six, were killed. The other child, Dolores Suggs, eight, is under observation at Audubon hospital with a possible skull fracture.

The father, William Suggs, Jr., a truck driver, had taken the family to the races for a day's outing. He was standing not far from his wife and children at the time of the crash.

The court below, Justice Stern wrote, "that the borough has any such statutory or other authority."

The court, in a busy day, also handed down these decisions:

1. That contracts awarded for road work and materials are binding as they were originally awarded.
2. That a person seeking pension as a blind man cannot be disqualified solely because of $5,000 in tangible assets.
3. Rejecting an appeal by Gus Dorazio, former heavyweight boxer convicted and sentenced for second degree murder.

X-Ray Shoe Fitting Machines Probed

Harrisburg, June 27 (AP)—The state and city of Pittsburgh are studying the question of whether shoe-fitting machines using X-ray beams constitute a health hazard.

Some types of shoe-fitting machines house X-ray machines which unless properly controlled may expose individuals regularly in contact with the device to harmful X-radiations, said Dr. Joseph Shilen, director of the state Bureau of Industrial Hygiene.

However, Shilen said tests conducted so far have failed to indicate that machines in operation in Pennsylvania present a major health problem.

The world's largest valve—a rotating valve—is installed just outside the west portal of the Moffat tunnel in Colorado. It controls the entire flow of water in the trans-mountain division through the tunnel to Denver.
